II Timothy 3:14-17

Look for our event!

A photograph of a field of pink tulips in the foreground, with a stone wall or ledge in the background. The tulips are in various stages of bloom, and the background is slightly out of focus. The overall scene is bright and natural.

A Way to Live and a Reason to Die

I. The Reality of the Word of Truth: All Scripture is Inspired by God

II Peter 1:21 -

“No prophecy ever came by the impulse of man, but men move by the Holy Spirit spoke from God”

II. The Value of the Word of Truth: All Scripture is Profitable

Romans 15:4 -

What was written in earlier times was written for our instruction

II. The Value of the Word of Truth: All Scripture is Profitable

Hebrews 4:12 -

For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

II. The Value of the Word of Truth: All Scripture is Profitable

“Our culture blinds, deafens and dopes us. We neither see what we ought to see (feel what we ought to feel or hear what we ought to hear.) We need to allow God’s Word to confront us, disturbing our security, undermining our complacency, penetrating our protective patterns of thought and behavior, and overthrowing our resistance.”

~John Stott

II. The Value of the Word of Truth: All Scripture is Profitable

“Thank God for the Bible! God has not left us to grope our way in the darkness; He has given us light to show us the path. He has not abandoned us to flounder in heavy seas; Scripture is a rock on which we may stand.”

~John Stott

III. Our Response to the Word of truth: All Scripture is Desirable

“I began to read the Holy Scriptures upon my knees, laying aside all other books, and praying over, if possible, every line and word. This proved meat indeed and drink indeed to my soul. I daily received fresh life, light and power from above.”

~George Whitefield

III. Our Response to the Word of truth: All Scripture is Desirable

Romans 15:4 -

Whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, so that through the perseverance and encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

III. Our Response to the Word of truth: All Scripture is Desirable

I Thessalonians 2:13 -

We also constantly thank God that when you received the word of God which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men, but for what it really is, the word of God, which performs its work in you who believe.
